

Preshow clinic with Nicole Kempf organized by NEIHC

3-day clinic: July 27-29 (Wednesday through Friday) 2016

Thor Icelandics, Claverack, NY

Clinician: Nicole Kempf

IPZV Ausbilder

FEIF International Sport Judge

Gaedingakeppni Judge

Nicole is one of Germany's 11 highest level trainers and educators. To become an Ausbilder you have to be first a Trainer A, a sport judge and a breeding judge. Ausbilder are responsible for all education and continuing education of trainers and judges in Germany.

Nicole has over 30 years of experience with Icelandic horses in training, showing, breeding and is simply passionate about this breed. Her sensitive and positive way of coaching has led uncountable clients to success in their aspirations. Nicole has a unique ability to read horses, not only by talent and conformation but their spirit. Knowledge, experience and her intuition have led to her own successes, like being runner up in WCs, numerous German championship titles and she still holds the German record in Speed Pace and 250m pace race.

Learn from a veteran in this industry, who is interested in the wellbeing of all horses, who enjoys teaching riders of all levels and her positive teaching style will give you a boost into new possibilities. (Bio provided by Katrin Taylor Sheehan)
